

Broadcast Update
for the week of Mar, 12-18, 2017

Greetings to everyone on this list!

In this issue:

- Recent Broadcasts
- Coming Attractions
- News
- Radio Requests
- Resource Directory

RECENT BROADCASTS:

Producer Ariane Delaunois reports that, on Feb. 24, she presented these works on Hildegard to Hildegard (in South Devon, UK, at 102.5fm, and at www.mixcloud.com/SAR4AD): the first three movements of Alla Elena Cohen's Inner Temple Brachot; "Monastery Service," "Remorseful Prayer," and "Psalmody" from Margarita Zelenia's Byzantine Chants; Chiara Margarita Cozzolani's mottetto, "O Quam Bonus Es; "Les Cloches, The Bells" from Ruth Lomon's Esquisses; Annette Vandegorne's "Metal"; Jane Leslie's "An American Song," "Starlight Reflexion," and "Southampton Sunset"; Jessica Pym's "Thiepval" and "The Search for Serenity"; Debbie Wiseman's "Oscar"; Keiko Fujiie's "Floating Paper Boats on the River"; Beth Mehocie's "Piece by Piece"; Elaine Lillios's "November Twilight"; "Souls Ascending" from Sheila Silver's Twilight's Last Gleaming; Patricia Morehead's "Night"; and Mary Wright's "Lizard Belly Moon." Hildegard to Hildegard, she says, is "the radio show for music by women composers ancient and modern.

On Mar. 2 and 5, Joseph Gueron featured "a selection of women singers who deserve greater recognition and a wider audience" on GloBeat Discovery Compilation on WERA (96.7 FM @radioarlington). Included were Dom La Nena's "O vento" from Ela; Anjani's "Innermost Door" from Blue Alert; Charlotte Gainsbourg's "voyage" from IRM (Deluxe Version); Méav's "One I Love" from Méav; Mona Boutchebak's "Sekna" from Putumayo Presents Women of the World Acoustic; Ana Moura's "Vaga No Azul Amplo Salto" from Para Alem Da Saudade; Sasha Lazard's "awakening" from he Myth of Red; Omara Portuondo's "Siboney" from La Musica de Ernesto Lecuona Vols. 1 and 2; Gigi's "Kahn" from Gigi; Fiorella Putumayo's Putumayo Presents Woman of the World Acoustic; Najma's "Apne Hathon" from Qareeb; and Andrea Marcovicci's "My Man's Riding in the Moonlight" from New Words.

Richard Beckman of KNHD (104.1 FM) in Eugene, Oregon, USA played tracks from these CDs on the Mar. 5 broadcast of his Worldwide Classical show: Kathryn Mishell's Poem, Rain Worthington's Dream Vapors, Katy Abbott's Sunburst

Aftertones and Famous, Seth Evans's String Quartets nos. 1 and 2, Cynthia Green Libby's The Lotus Pond, Derek Limback's The Ripple Effect: Three Pieces for Neon, Betty R. Wishart's Piano Sonorities, Wang An-Ming's (untitled), Vivian Adelberg Rudow's Sound Portraits, Lydia Kakabadse's Coachman's Terror, and Faye-Ellen Silverman's Manhattan Stories. The program can be streamed at knhd1047.radiostream321.com, knhd1047.listen2myshow.com, knhd1047.radio12345.com, and knhd1047.radiostream123.com.

Samuel Barber's mother and pianist (though not named) and sopranos Louise Homer and Rose Bampton were mentioned in the Mar. 5 edition of Composers Datebook. Information about the show, hosted by John Zech, is available at <http://composersdatebook.publicradio.org/about>.

On the Mar. 5 edition of Classical Guitar Alive, host Tony Morris interviewed composer and guitarist Susan MacDonald and broadcast her "The Question" as well as a piece by Anila Costa (<http://www.guitaralive.org/home.html>).

In the Mar. 6 (early music special), and Mar. 8 editions of Classical Discoveries on WPRB (103.3 FM and online at www.wprb.com in Princeton, NJ, USA) host Marvin Rosen included Sappho's "Psaphrodita" (original poetry/music realization); Elisabeth-Claude Jacquet de la Guerre's Suite 1 in D Minor; Birgitta von Schweden's Antiphon, "Benedictus Sis Tu"; Chiara Margarita Cozzolani's I Vespri Natalizi (Christmas Vespers—complete); Mlle. Duval's suite from the Ballet Les Genies; Maria Xaveria Perucona's motet, "O Superbi Mundi Machina"; Sulpitia Cesis's "Benedictus Dominus"; Lilia Vazquez's "Estudio #1"; Anna Bon's Sonata in D Major, op. 1, no. 4; Berthe di Vito-Delvaux's Sonata for horn and piano, op. 109; Alicia De Larocha's "Invention No. 5"; Christine Donkin's "Mappa Mundi"; Peggy Glanville-Hicks's "Sinfonia Da Pacifica"; Ann Southam's "Glass Houses No. 1"; Gaby Kapps's (Maria Gabriella Cappelletti's) "Obsessive Fantasy"; Dobrinka Tabakova's "Insight"; Maria Joachina Rodrigues's Cantata, "Musicos Ruysenores"; Vitezslava Kapralova's "Two Bouquets of Flowers", "Little Song," and "Ostinato Fox"; Cristina Spinei's "Synched"; Debbie Wiseman's "Flood" from the Motion Picture Soundtrack; Patricia Van Ness's "The Voice of the Muse"; Barbara Heller's "Patchwork," String Quartet no. 3; Nomeda Valančiūtė's "The Message"; Nadia Boulanger's "La Mer" and "Trois Pieces pour Piano"; Helen Jane Long's "The Aviators"; Elif Ebru Sakar's "Wind Touch"; Victoria Poleva's Credo; Zulema de la Cruz's "Soledad"; Kassiani's "Hymn Peter and Paul"; Eleni Karaindrou's David, stage cantata for soloists, choir and orchestra; Asha Srinivasan's "Bapu for flute, clarinet, and electronics"; Helena Tulve's "Valvaja (Watcher)"; Victoria Kelly's "Sono"; Ā1/2ubica ĀĒekovskĀi's Piano Concerto in Two Movements; and Theodora Gines's "Son de la Ma Teodora." Classical Discoveries, a 5.5-hour radio program devoted to little known repertoire with emphasis on living composers, airs Wednesdays 5:30-11:00 A.M. ET and is archived for two weeks at http://www.classicaldiscoveries.org/index_music.html. Both programs are archived for two weeks at http://www.classicaldiscoveries.org/index_music.html.

On Mar. 7, the BBC Radio 3 broadcast Rhian Samuel's Clytemnestra (text after Aeschylus) with Ruby Hughes, soprano, and the BBC National Orchestra of Wales, conductor, Tecwyn Hughes. "It will," says Rhian Samuel, "be available online on the BBC i-player afterwards."

Producer Ariane Delaunois reports that, on Mar. 8, she presented these works on Hildegard to Hildegard (in South Devon, UK, at 102.5fm, and at www.mixcloud.com/SAR4AD): Annette Vande Gorne's "Terre"; Carin Malm-Forsling's Orizzonte for Solo Horn; Cécile Chaminade's "La Lisonjera" ("The Flatterer"), op. 50; the first two movements of Elizabeth Anderson's Protopia/Tesseract; "Wer Sich der Einsamkeit Ergibt" from Gloria Coates's Perchance to Dream; "Arioso," "Unity of Spirit," and "Holiday Hymn" from Margarita Zelenai's Byzantine Chants; and Parts One, Two, and Three of "Homage to Jean Cocteau and Jean Marais" from Alla Cohen's Triptych for Chamber Orchestra. Hildegard to Hildegard, Ariane Delaunois says, is "the radio show for music by women composers ancient and modern."

On International Women's Day, Mar. 8, the day following her final broadcast of The Latest Score on WOMR (Provincetown, Massachusetts, USA), Canary Burton presented a program, of electronic music composed by women, including Alice Shields, Dorothy Hindman, Pamela Z, Elodie Lauten, Elizabeth Hinkle-Turner, and Anna Rubin.

Host Kath Fraser broadcast the following playlist in a special program for International Women's Day, Mar 8, and again in the Mar. 9 edition of Gathering Her Notes on ECR (Ellensburg Community Radio in Ellensburg, WA USA), reporting that "It is a recording with my commentary from the program of the concert [Caritas: Sacred Music by Women] that Seattle Pro Musica gave for International Women's Day in 2015." The works were Ramona Luengen's "Ubi Caritas," Lucrezia Orsina Vizzana's "Protector Noster," Janika Vandervelde's "o Viridissima Virga," Saint Hildegard of Bingen's "o Viridissima Virga" and "Caritas Abundat," "The Lord's Prayer" from Lucija Garuta's God, Your Earth Is Burning!, Karen P. Thomas's "Caritas Abundat" and "O Virga Mediatrix, Dobrinka Tabakova's "Calm Light" ("Svete Tihy"), Sheila Bristow's "Fair As a Dove," Margriet Tindemans's "Venite Adorare," Christine Donkin's "Magnificat," Hyo-Won Woo's "Amazing Grace," Melinda Bargreen's "Stella Splendens," and Carol Barnett's "McKay." Kath Fraser characterizes Gathering Her Notes as a program focusing on "women's contemporary classical music from the late 20th and the 21st centuries with the occasional digression."

The parents of composer Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach—Maria Barbara Bach and Johann Sebastian Bach—were mentioned in the Mar. 8 edition of Composers Datebook. Information about the show, hosted by John Zech, is available at <http://composersdatebook.publicradio.org/about>.

On Mar. 9, host John Zech mentioned novelist George Sand as being among the celebs present at the Parisian debut of Nicolo Paganini. Information about the show is available at <http://composersdatebook.publicradio.org/about>.

Radio ArtsIndonesia named composer Ruth Lomon Artist of the Week for Mar. 10-16.

ABC Classic FM in Australia programmed its Mar. 8 broadcast to consist solely—100 percent— of music composed by women. “The ABC recognises International Women’s Day across TV, radio, online and on radio. Move over, Beethoven, on Wednesday 8 March you’ll hear only the women of classical music for a full and glorious 24 hours on ABC Classic FM.” The scheduled hosts are Sian Prior, Alice Keath, Tamara-Anna Cislowska, Greta Bradman, Genevieve Lang, Mairi, and Deborah Cheetham. IAWM member Natalie Williams reminds listeners to “click the "Listen Online" link to tune in. Australia is currently 14 hours ahead of East Coast (EST) time”

Composers whose works were broadcast that week were Elena Kats-Chernin, Miriam Hyde, Margaret Sutherland, Louise Denson, Nadia Boulanger, Marie Jaëll, Sally Beamish, Cécile Chaminade, Peggy Glanville-Hicks, Fanny Mendelssohn, Jennifer Higdon, Rachel Portman, Kate Neal, Maria Grenfell, Isabella Leonarda, Iris de Cairos Rego, Rebecca Clarke, Clara Schumann, Catrin Finch, Peggy Glanville-Hicks, Louise Farrenc, Dobrinka Tabakova, Ekaterina Walter-Kühne, Lili Boulanger, Rachel Portman, Mel Bonis, Dulcie Holland, Katharine Parker, Ethel Smyth, Amy Beach, Claude Arrieu, Barbara Strozzi, Francisca Gonzaga, Élisabeth Jacquet de La Guerre, Anne Boyd, Lili Boulanger, Vítězslava Kaprálová, Florence Price, Cécile Elton, Hildegard of Bingen, Pauline Viardot, Dora Pejačević, Natalie Williams, Christine Draeger, Maria Antonia Walpurgis, Francesca Caccini, Ann Carr-Boyd, Mary Finsterer, Esther Rofe, Sally Whitwell, Caerwen Martin, Margaret Brandman, Lyn Williams, Laura Karpman, Anna Priscilla Risher, Comtessa Beatrice de Dia, Vivian Fung, Agathe Backer-Grøndahl, Ros Bandt, Cathie Travers, Germaine Tailleferre, Kate Moore, Tatjana Kozlova, Liza Lim, Melody Eötvös, Cassie To, Kaija Saariaho, Joan Tower, Brooke Green, Kat McGuffie, Eve Duncan, Judith Weir, Christine Draeger, Clare Maclean, Thea Musgrave, Jeanette Sorrell, and Nell Snaidas.

The week of Mar. 5-11, Radio ArtsIndonesia (www.radio.artsindonesia.com) in Jakarta, Indonesia, has scheduled for broadcast works by these composers: Margaret Shelton Meier, Nancy Van de Vate, Binnette Lipper, Barbara Jazwinski, Nancy Wertsch, Judith Lang Zaimont, Lee Pui Ming, Patricia Morehead, Lydia Kakabadse, Judith Shatin, Patricia Morehead, Margaret Brandman, Rain Worthington, Canary Burton arranged by Joan Yakkey, Sonja Grossner, Jerry Casey, Deon Nielsen Price, Betty Beath, Mary Mageau, Diana Blom, Alicyn Warren, Laura Greenberg, and Rebecca Oswald.

COMING ATTRACTIONS:

For the Sun., Mar. 12, edition of Women in Music on The Grand (10:00 P.M.-midnight Eastern Time, at 101.1 FM in Fergus, Ontario, Canada, and at www.thegrand101.com), host Tom Quick has scheduled pianist Min Kwon, playing Liszt's Don Juan Fantasy; soprano Susan Narucki and pianist Donald Berman, performing Juliana Hall's Syllables of Velvet, Sentences of Plush; trumpeter Thomas Pfothenhauer and pianist Vincert Fuh, playing Cecilia McDowell's FRAMED for Trumpet and Piano; soprano Sharon Harms and pianist Lowell Liebermann, performing Liebermann's "Music, When Soft Voices Die," Joan Morris/William Bolcom's "Of Love of You," and John Eaton's Lycidas; violist Hillary Herndon and pianist Wei-Chun Bernadette, playing Rebecca Clarke's Sonata for Viola and Piano; and flutist Kara Kirkendoll Welch and pianist Gabriel Sanchez, playing Frank Martin's Ballade.

The week of Mar. 12-16, Radio ArtsIndonesia (www.radio.artsindonesia.com) in Jakarta, Indonesia, has scheduled for broadcast works by these composers: Katy Abbott, Nancy Van de Vate, Betty Beath, Lee Pui Ming, Margi Griebing-Haigh, Sonja Grossner, Elizabeth Pizer, Violeta Dinescu, Ester Magi, Tsippi Fleischer, Sophie-Carmen Eckhardt-Gramatte, Rain Worthington, Patricia Morehead, Jerry Casey, Myriam Marbe, Elizabeth Bell, Faye-Ellen Silverman, Ruth Lomon, Nancy Bloomer Deussen, Marilyn J. Ziffrin, Mary Jeanne Van Appledorn, Stefania de Kenessey, Hilary Tann, Jeanne Shaffer, Nancy Wertsch, Clara Wieck Schumann, Emely Zobel, and Canary Burton.

For the Sun., Mar. 19, edition of Women in Music on The Grand (10:00 P.M.-midnight Eastern Time, at 101.1 FM in Fergus, Ontario, Canada, and at www.thegrand101.com), host Tom Quick has scheduled violinist Julia Fischer, playing Tchaikovsky's Serenade Melancolique, op. 26, and Valse-Scherzo, op. 34, with the Russian National Orchestra, conducted by Yakov Kreizberg; pianist Barbara Nissman, playing Liszt's Funerailles and Valse Oubilee no.1 in F-sharp Minor; flutist Rebecca Jeffreys and pianist Alexander Timofeev, playing the Nocturne from Francisc Kayali's Intermezzo; Lucie Horsch on recorder, playing Vivaldi's Concerto for Flute in G Major with the Amsterdam Vivaldi Players; flutist Rebecca Jeffreys and pianist Alexander Timofeev, playing Adrienne Albert's Acadian Dreams; soprano Renee Fleming, singing Samuel Barber's Knoxville: Summer of 1915, with the Royal Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Sakari Oramo; pianist Ivana Gavric, playing Chopin's Mazurka in C Minor, op. 6, no. 2, his Mazurka in B-flat Major, op. 7, no.1, and his Mazurka in F Minor, op. 7, no. 3; cellist Nina Kotova and pianist Fabio Bidini, playing Prokofiev's Sonata for Cello and Piano; and pianist Mary Kenedi, playing Bartok's "If We Had Choke-Berries and Cherries," "A Crow Sat on a Bare Bench," "Two Roses Blossom," "Wedding Song," Variations, Round Dance, "Sorrow," Dance, "Round Dance II," and "Funeral Song."

For the week of Mar. 12-18, ABC Classic FM in Australia (<http://www.abc.net.au/classic>) has included works by these composers in its programming: Elean Kats-Chernin, Betty Beath, Miriam Hyde, Linda Phillips, Clara Schumann, May Howlett, Vítězslava Kaprálová, Dulcie Holland, Wendy Hiscocks, Rebecca Clarke, Anna Clyne, Germaine Tailleferre, and Amy Beach.

Throughout March, John Winsor, host of NACUSA Web Radio (<http://nacusa.us/radio.html>) is including these works in the playlist (repeated every two hours): “Autumn Woods” and Allegro from Karen Amanda Amrhein’s Hamilton Street Concerto and Fanfare (“Dreams of Little Nemo”) from her Little Nemo in Slumberland; Claire Karst Rivero’s Kyrie Eleison; Movements One, Two, and Three of Lori F Ardovino’s Diversions; “Bogart” and “In Memory of John J. Hill” from Vivian Adelberg Rudow’s John’s Song; “Wednesday” and “Thursday” from Deane E. Bottorf’s Weekdays Suite; Claire Karst Rivero’s “On Gratitude” and “Place Your Mind in the Mirror of Eternity”; Nancy Bloomer Deussen’s “Ascent to Victory”; and Lisa Ann Marsh’s “Why Broken Heart.”

Every March since 2004, in observance of Women’s History Month, Classical Discoveries (Wednesdays 5:30-11:00 A.M. ET) on WPRB (103.3 FM and online at www.wprb.com in Princeton, NJ, USA) pays tribute to music by women composers from all over the world and through the centuries with its program In Praise of Woman. Every regularly scheduled Wednesday program in March is exclusively devoted to their music. The third show of the series will air Wed., Mar. 15, and will be devoted to American Women composers.

In addition to the scheduled programs of Classical Discoveries on Wednesdays, each edition of Treasures of Early Music (Mondays, 5:30-11:00 A.M.) will feature one major work by a woman, composed before 1750, as well as some other works by women. Both programs are archived for two weeks at http://www.classicaldiscoveries.org/index_music.html.

NEWS:

American Composers Forum on Mar. 9 honored the International Alliance for Women in Music by naming it a 2017 Champion of New Music. This e-newsletter, the Resource Directory included below, and the Radio Request program are essential parts of the IAWM’s promotion of music composed by women.

On Mar. 9, Michelle Mercer reported for The Record, Music News from NPR, on what she deemed Robert Glasper’s sexist comments about women in jazz, stating, “Glasper’s comments came as a shock to exactly zero people who’ve spent any time in the jazz world” (http://www.npr.org/sections/therecord/2017/03/09/519482385/sexism-from-two-leading-jazz-artists-draws-anger-and-presents-an-opportunity?utm_source=npr_newsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_content=20170309&utm_campaign=youmusthearthis&utm_term=music).

Canary Burton, host of The Latest Score, on WOMR in Provincetown, Massachusetts, USA, has announced that the last broadcast of the show was Mar. 7. Burton reports that she intends to focus on composing.

At least since 2008, the IAWM's Resource Directory has listed The Latest Score, a program of contemporary music, as a "friendly broadcaster," one apt to play music composed by women as well as men.

Burton has donated her collection—comprised of more than 400 CDs—of recordings to a university library.

A keyboardist as well as a composer, Burton is an IAWM member. Her Southern River was among the winners of the IAWM's 2013 Search for New Music competition. She has recently finished composing a Mass and is committed to several commissions.

Although the final broadcast of The Latest Score is set for Tues., Mar. 7, Burton is scheduled to present a program on International Women's Day (Wed., Mar. 8), of electronic music composed by women. The time is 1:00-2:30 EST.

Solvejg Wastvedt reported for NPR's Feb. 18 edition of Weekend Edition on Spring Lake Park High in Minnesota, whose bands are committed to include "at least one piece by a female composer and one by a composer of color in each concert" (<http://www.npr.org/sections/ed/2017/02/18/509133975/why-this-high-school-band-is-only-buying-music-from-composers-of-color>).

Stephen Adams of ABC Classic FM (Australia). reports that recent podcast content is available free at <http://www.abc.net.au/classic/australianmusic/podcast.htm> - or through iTunes and other subscription services. "All the programs," he says, "feature interviews with the composers, or in the case of the percussion collection, the performer/commissioner":

*CHAMBER MADE OPERA - Permission to Speak

<http://www.abc.net.au/classic/content/2017/01/05/4599498.htm>

Composer Kate Neal and director Tamara Saulwick's new a capella music-theatre work delving into the relationships between children of all ages and our parents.

*CATHY MILLIKEN - Earth Plays <http://www.abc.net.au/classic/content/2016/12/08/4589361.htm>

Cathy Milliken's award-winning orchestral work, performed by soprano Jessica Aszodi and the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Adelaide Festival Tectonics curator Ilan Volkov.

*EVE DUNCAN 1 - Butterfly Modernism

<http://www.abc.net.au/classic/content/2016/12/22/4595098.htm>

The light-filled chamber music of Eve Duncan, performed by pianist Michael Kieran Harvey and an outstanding collection of Melbourne musicians at the Melbourne Recital Centre.

*HELEN GIFFORD - A Plaint for Lost Worlds <http://www.abc.net.au/classic/content/2016/12/15/4591828.htm>

In a nostalgic mood, New Waves listens to the chamber music of Helen Gifford, works spanning 50 years of her career, curated by harpist Jacinta Dennet for Australian National Academy of Music's 'Australian Voices' concert series.

LOUISE DEVENISH - Experimental Music for One Percussionist <http://www.abc.net.au/classic/content/2016/09/29/4541419.htm>

Three striking new works for percussion by composers Kate Moore, Cat Hope, and James Hullick.

On Feb. 13, Andrew Flanagan reported for NPR on Adele's second sweep of the major categories at the Grammys (http://www.npr.org/sections/thetwo-way/2017/02/13/514914409/2017-grammy-awards-adele-upsets-beyonce-chance-arrives-politics-pop-slightly? utm_source=npr_newsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_content=20170213&utm_campaign=youmusthearthis&utm_term=music).

Ann Powers reported on Feb. 9 for NPR on vocalist and fiddler Alison Krauss's CD, Windy City (http://www.npr.org/2017/02/09/514096051/first-listen-alison-krauss-windy-city? utm_source=npr_newsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_content=20170209&utm_campaign=youmusthearthis&utm_term=music).

On Feb. 9, Jewly Hight interviewed singer-songwriter Sunny Sweeney about her CD, Trophy, and its exploration of the conflicting desires for motherhood and performing career. (http://www.npr.org/2017/02/09/514161006/songs-we-love-sunny-sweeney-bottle-by-my-bed?

utm_source=npr_newsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_content=20170209&utm_campaign=youmusthearthis&utm_term=music)

On Feb. 1, Anastasia Tsioulcas of NPR Music discussed a very popular Saudi Arabian music video with Ari Shapiro, host of All Things Considered. In the video, women emerge from full, black niqab to "doing all kinds of silly things, playing basketball and riding bumper cars" in brightly colored clothing while berating men (http://www.npr.org/2017/02/01/512895766/saudi-women-stunt-hard-and-dis-men-in-a-music-video-gone-viral?

utm_source=npr_newsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_content=20170202&utm_campaign=youmusthearthis&utm_term=music).

On Jan. 31, Sorya Sarhaddi Nelson reported for NPR's Morning Edition on an all-female, Afghani orchestra in Berlin (<http://www.npr.org/2017/01/31/512592727/first-all-female-afghan-orchestra-makes-it-mark-on-european-stages>).

NPR's All Things Considered aired a feature story by Jeff Lunden about opera producer Beth Morrison on Jan. 5 (<http://www.npr.org/sections/deceptivecadence/2017/01/05/508395766/meet-the-producer-who-runs-her-opera-empire-from-a-two-bedroom-apartment>).

On Jan. 5, NPR's All Things Considered replayed Audie Cornish's Oct. 6 interview of Regina Spektor about her CD, Remember Us to Life. Born in the Soviet Union, Spektr is the composer of, among other things, the theme for Netflix's Orange Is The New Black (<http://www.npr.org/2017/01/05/508408528/encore-regina-spektors-new-album-reflects-on-darker-side-of-life>).

Composer, violinist, and vocalist Kadhja Bonet was interviewed about her music, “an experimental mix of soul, classical, jazz, and folk,” and her new CD, The Visitor, for the Dec. 20 edition of NPR's All Things Considered (<http://www.npr.org/2016/12/20/506190842/kadhja-bonets-quarter-life-crisis-led-her-home-to-music>).

Mica Levi's score for the movie Jackie was the topic of Tim Grieving's story on the Dec. 4 edition of All Things Considered (<http://www.npr.org/2016/12/04/504039949/jackie-shows-a-first-lady-behind-closed-doors-but-the-music-is-front-and-center>) on NPR.

Kaija Saariaho, whose L'Amour de Loin is the first opera by a woman composer to be produced at the New York Metropolitan Opera in 113 years, was interviewed by Jeff Lunden for NPR's Weekend Edition on Dec. 3. He reports that singer Susanna Phillips says the work feels like a classic. Susanna Mälkki conducts (<http://www.npr.org/sections/deceptivecadence/2016/12/03/503986298/half-of-humanity-has-something-to-say-composer-kaija-saariaho-on-her-met-debut>).

Broadcaster Richard Beckman of KNHD is seeking recordings for his show of new classical music. CDs can be sent to him at 3355 N. Delta Hwy. / #148 / Eugene OR 97408 / USA.

Tom Quick's show, Women in Music, has moved to The Grand at 101.1 FM in Fergus, Ontario, Canada, and at www.thegrand101.com, where it is currently broadcast at least two Sundays a month, 10:00 P.M. to midnight Eastern Time. Tom Quick can still be reached at quickmusic1@gmail.com.

Radio Arts Indonesia is now available at www.radio.artsindonesia.com, <http://tunein.com/>, <http://tunein.com/tuner/?StationId=150685&>, <http://www.shoutcast.com/Internet-Radio/RadioArtsIndonesia>, and <http://50.22.212.205:8138/>.

Rik Malone, music director of KDFC in San Francisco, California (USA,) and online at www.kdfc.com, sends this reminder: “Since we are now under the same programming umbrella as KUSC in Los Angeles, our (mostly) shared programming reaches more than a million listeners each week throughout the state of California (and beyond, on-line).”

In September, KWAX was at least temporarily suspended from inclusion in the list of “friendly” stations in the IAWM's Resource Directory. Peter van de Graaff of the Beethoven Network, who has been music director at the Eugene, OR, USA, station since March, says that the station no longer plays requests. “I am very, very hopeful that we will be able to bring back request days on KWAX, just as soon as we can hire another announcer who will do nothing national—only local. Stay tuned—I'm hoping that will happen in the next couple of months.”

In 2005, when Caitriona Bolster was music director, the IAWM named KWAX one of three Honored Broadcasters for its commitment to broadcasting music written by women. The Resource Directory appears at the end of this e-newsletter and on the IAWM Web page.

KUSP has also been removed from the Resource Directory. The station filed for bankruptcy in August and is off the air.

Welcome to our newest “friendly” broadcaster, i.e., one willing and apt to play music composed by women. KNHD in Eugene, Oregon, USA (at 104.1 FM and online at knhd1047.radiostream321.com, knhd1047.listen2myshow.com, knhd1047.radio12345.com, and knhd1047.radiostream122.com) broadcasts jazz, blues, Western swing, pop, and easy listening. Women’s music is included in The Wireless, on Fridays, 5:00-7:00 P.M. Pacific Time. Host Richard Beckman says that he can play mp3s as well as CDs; please e-mail him (rikkirikradio@gmail.com) before sending recordings.

On June 15, National Public Radio (NPR) invited listeners to “explain why the world should pay more attention to YOUR favorite composer.” To learn more and participate, go to <http://www.classicalmpr.org/story/2016/01/12/share-yourclassical-story>.

Composer and IAWM member Sabrina Peña Young had her arrangement of the theme song of NPR’s Morning Edition featured on the show on May 18 (<http://www.npr.org/2016/05/18/478488972/-morning-edition-sci-fi-theme-is-out-of-this-world>).

Beata Rzeszodko-Rosen reports that her husband, Marvin Rosen, who is the host of Classical Discoveries on WPRB, is interested in receiving recordings from composers from southern Europe and the Middle East. Composers are encouraged to e-mail him at Marvinrosen@classicaldiscoveries.org.

Charles Conrad reports that, at Radio ArtsIndonesia, women composers make up 51 percent of the living composers whose work is scheduled for broadcast—Mar. 10-16.

Composer and IAWM member Marian Mapes-Bouck has left a 20-acre parcel of land to station KMUD. Mapes-Bouck, who died in 2009, had hosted the classical music programs Marian’s Klassics and Bach to Bouck on the station since 2006.

Host Scott Simon of NPR’s Weekend Edition Saturday on Sat., Sept. 4, 2012, interviewed Ann and Nancy Wilson of the band Heart for “Legendary Rock Band Looks Ahead” (archived at <http://www.npr.org/templates/story/story.php?storyId=129611047&ps=cprs>), saying, “For women in the '70s, the world of rock 'n' roll was tough to crack.” Ann Wilson replied, in part, “Radio would play only one woman per hour.”

RADIO REQUESTS:

The Advocacy Committee encourages participants in this list to contact their local or Internet radio stations and ask them to play music by a chosen composer each week. The (l-o-n-g) list of composers featured in the past appears at <http://iawm.org/radio-requests/past-radio-requests/>, along with links to Web pages containing biographical information and discographies.

This week's Radio Request composer is THEA MUSGRAVE. An e-mail with details will follow this newsletter.

Every week, Advocacy Committee chair Ursula Rempel researches and selects a composer, Elisabeth Blair adds the new Radio Request to our Web page (<http://iawm.org/radio-requests>), and participants in this list telephone and e-mail local and Internet classical radio stations and ask them to broadcast work by the chosen composer. A list of "friendly" stations—those inclined to broadcast music written by women—appears below.

RESOURCE DIRECTORY:

The Advocacy Committee encourages every composer and performer with a commercially produced CD to send it to appropriate stations--and, as Ursula Rempel says, "let us know that you have."

We encourage everyone who hears women's compositions over the airwaves or the Internet to thank the broadcasters.

A growing list of "friendly" stations follows. "Friendly" stations are those inclined to broadcast recordings of compositions by women and living composers.

[If possible, before mailing CDs, go to the stations' Web pages to get a sense of the types of music they play.]

ABC Classic FM (Australia). The Web address is <http://www.abc.net.au/classic/>. Please direct correspondence relating to new releases and other broadcast proposals to the new network Daily Programming Unit - dpu@abc.net.au, address Daily Programming Unit, ABC Classic FM, GPO Box 9994, Sydney, NSW 2001 AUSTRALIA. The unit has a strong commitment to improving gender balance in classical programming across the board from early music to the latest compositions. Note that, while ABC Classic FM does not have a dedicated new music program on radio, the network does have the New Waves Podcast (<http://www.abc.net.au/classic/australianmusic/podcast.htm>), a weekly podcast program of new Australian music and interviews.

For inquiries regarding this program, and for event, recording, and production proposals relating to new and repertoire Australian music, please contact Australian Music Unit producer Stephen Adams (adams.stephen@abc.net.au). (NB: Stephen is also a member of the Daily Programming Unit.)

Berklee Internet Radio Network (BIRN). Music must be submitted on CDs only. "The BIRN will only play the submitted music if a BIRN DJ chooses to. You should try to identify that DJ in your submission. The BIRN will not play music with obscenities or indecent content." Print the Submission Form from the Web page (<http://media.thebirn.com/BIRN-release.pdf>) and mail it with the CD and a single page about the artist to The BIRN / Berklee College of Music / MS-150 / 1140 Boylston Street / Boston, MA 02215 USA, or drop it off at Professional Writing Center, at 150 Massachusetts Avenue or the Submissions Box outside our door on the third floor of the Uchida Building at 921 Boylston St. "It is highly recommended that artist and track information be submitted to Gracenote [<http://www.gracenote.com>] before sending to The BIRN." Questions may be sent to info@thebirn.com.

COAST TO COAST A.M. Composers and performers interested in having excerpts of their work played as "bumper music" on Coast to Coast A.M.--a commercial radio program carried by "more than 500 stations in the U.S., as well as Canada, Mexico and Guam" and "heard by nearly three million weekly listeners"--may want to see <http://www.coasttocoastam.com/article/new-music-sundays>. The first Sunday of every month, Coast to Coast A.M. plays short clips of new music as transitions between program segments.

ECR (ELLENSBURG COMMUNITY RADIO) streams Gathering Her Notes, a program focusing on "women's contemporary classical music from the late 20th and the 21st centuries with the occasional digression" online Thursdays 1:00 to 2:00 P.M. Pacific Time at eburgradio.com. Contact host Kath Fraser and send mp3s to mskathfraser@gmail.com; the mailing address for CDs is 2150 Teanaway Road, Cle Elum WA USA 98922.

THE GRAND at 101.1 FM in Fergus, Ontario, Canada, and at www.thegrand101.com. Tom Quick's show, Women in Music, is broadcast at least two Sundays a month, 10:00 P.M. to midnight Eastern Time. He is especially interested in Canadian content, and can be reached at quickmusic1@gmail.com.

HILDEGARD TO HILDEGARD (www.hildegardtihildegard.blogspot.com), "an exclusively female music show, ancient to contemporary, from Hildegard von Bingen to Hildegard Westerkamp," runs in the United Kingdom Thursdays at 2:00 P.M. (GMT) on Soundart Radio (www.soundartradio.org.uk). Producer Ariane Delaunois reports, "We offer air space to living female composers and sound artists, classical, electro-acoustic, electronic and experimental, any music written by women that isn't pop genre, singer-writer. We love receiving CDs (best to e-mail first); don't hesitate to submit your music!" The e-mail address is hildegardtihildegard@gmail.com.

KALX (<http://kalx.berkeley.edu/kalxfaq.htm>). Information about submitting music is at http://kalx.berkeley.edu/submit_music.htm. Music directors Lindsay Melnyk and Brittney Stanley can be reached at music@kalx.berkeley.edu ("Do NOT email MP3's or other attachments!"). The mailing address is KALX / Attention: Music Director / University of California / 26 Barrows Hall #5650 / Berkeley, CA 94720-5650 (U.S.A.).

KDFC (<http://www.kdfc.com/>) in San Francisco, California (USA) (online at www.kdfc.com). "Since we are now under the same programming umbrella as KUSC in Los Angeles, our (mostly) shared programming reaches more than a million listeners each week throughout the state of California (and beyond, on-line)," says music director Rik Malone. CDs may be sent to him at Classical 102.1 KDFC, 201 Third Street, Suite 1200, San Francisco, CA 94103. You may e-mail him through the Web page. Please note that Rik reports that "we try to stay as tonal and melodic as possible in our playlist."

KGNU-FM (www.kgnu.org). You may contact Timm Lenk, Music Director, through the Web page. The mailing address is KGNU-FM, 4700 Walnut St. Boulder CO 80301 (U.S.A.).

KLCC-FM (<http://www.klcc.org>). The contact person is music, arts, and culture reporter Eric Alan. He can be reached at KLCC-FM /136 West 8th Avenue / Eugene, OR 97401 USA / (541)463-6045 / alane@lanecc.edu.

KMFA (<http://www.kmfa.org/>) was named one of the IAWM's Honored Broadcasters for its commitment to broadcasting music written by women. Also at KMFA, IAWM member Kathryn Mishell— winner of the 2009 Gracie Award for Outstanding Portrait/Biography, given by American Women in Radio and Television (AWRT) in recognition of "superior quality in writing, production and programming," and the 2008 Silver Communicator Award of Distinction for Audio—produces and hosts Into the Light, which broadcasts women's compositions over the airwaves and the Internet (http://www.kmfa.org/listen_index.htm). Contact KMFA: 3001 N. Lamar #100, Austin, TX, USA. Please note that Into the Light is on hiatus.

KMUD plays "anything but hard rock." Broadcasts are streamed on the Internet and archived. Go to www.KMUD.org to see which programs are appropriate for your vinyl records and CDs. Contact program hosts through the Website (<http://kmud.org/>).

KNHD in Eugene, Oregon, USA (at 104.1 FM and knhd1047.radiostream321.com, knhd1047.listen2myshow.com, knhd1047.radio12345.com, and online at knhd1047.radiostream122.com) broadcasts jazz, blues, Western swing, pop, and easy listening. Women's music is included in The Wireless, on Fridays, 5:00-7:00 P.M. Pacific Time. Host Richard Beckman, who is seeking recordings for his planned show of new classical music, says that he can play mp3s as well as CDs; please e-mail him (rikkiriradio@gmail.com) before mailing recordings to Richard Beckman / 3355 N. Delta Hwy. / #148 / Eugene OR 97408 / USA.

KRVM (<http://www.krvm.org/index.html>). Owned by Eugene School District 4J, KRVM can be heard online at <http://www.krvm.org/listen/listen.html>. "Our Women In Music show airs Tuesday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M. Pacific Time, and we are certainly open to receiving any CDs by women artists for consideration of airplay," says program director Stu Allen. "The show focuses on contemporary music as opposed to classical, jazz, or world music. CDs may be addressed to KRVM / Women In Music / 1574 Coburg Rd #237 / Eugene, OR 97401 (USA). I'll be sure they get into the right hands."

KTRU, affiliated with Rice University in Houston, TX (USA), produces Scordatura, which is dedicated to new music, avant-garde music, electroacoustic music, soundscape, and anything unusual. The station broadcasts seven hours of new music (many different kinds) each week. They also interview composers and performers of contemporary music on the show. The Web page is <http://www.ktru.org/> (there's a "Listen Now" button). Composers and performers may send CDs and contact information to: Scordatura Show/KTRU-FM/Ley Student Center/Rice University/6100 Main St./Houston, TX 77005.

KUFM plays a very eclectic mix of musical genres--from opera to hip hop. Its personnel have been known to read at length from liner notes of living composers. You may contact from the Web page: Michael Marsolek, Program Director, or Susan Bensen, Morning Classics Music Director. Montana Public Radio, the University of Montana, Missoula, MT, 59812-8064, USA. (406) 243-4931. 1-800-325-1565. <http://www.mtpr.net/contact.html>.

Radio ArtsIndonesia (www.radio.artsindonesia.com, <http://tunein.com/>, <http://tunein.com/tuner/?StationId=150685&>, <http://www.shoutcast.com/Internet-Radio/RadioArtsIndonesia>, and <http://50.22.212.205:8138/>) in Jakarta, Indonesia, programs classical music 24/7 "with special attention to classical (serious) compositions by Indonesian composers, conductors, musical groups, and soloists. In addition, we support the development of new serious compositions by living composers. We broadcast over 25 of our music which we classify as contemporary with a large number by women composers. Please Note: Do not send more than nine CDs at one time and please indicate the value of each CD as $1.00 and that the CDs are a donation. Also compositions can be sent as mp3 files, as our mailbox has no limitations on the size of the file. Please make sure to include the composer's name, title of the compositions, performers with instruments, and year composed." Please submit recordings to Charles Dean Conrad / KP Sumber ASRI AJ No. 19/ RT 002 RW 05 / Kecomberan / Talun / Cirebon 45171 Indonesia. Please e-mail mp3 files to radio@artsindonesia.com. For more information, please consult the Web page or contact cdconrad@gmail.com.

Radio Horizon 93.9 FM in Johannesburg, South Africa. Station manager Dimitri Voudouris says that the station likes to broadcast "works by women/living composers." He prefers to be contacted before people send CDs: dimitrivo@absamail.co.za.

Radio Monalisa, Amsterdam, the Netherlands, is available over the Internet at <http://www.radiomonalisa.nl>. Patricia Werner Leanse produces and hosts Muziek Van Vrouwelijke Componisten (Music by Women Composers). Contact her through the Web site.

Sveriges Radio, Swedish Public Radio (<http://sverigesradio.se/>), carries Birgitta Tollan's series, Ord och bild blir musik. Levande tonsättare berättar (Words and Images Become Music. Living Composers' Stories), and Birgitta reports that she is "very interested in receiving CD's from composers and performers!" Composers and performers may contact her at tollanmedia@mail.dk. Her surface mail address is Birgitta Tollan / H C Oersteds Vej 11 A, 3 T H / DK 1879 Frederiksberg C / Denmark.

WCNY Classic FM broadcasts Diane Jones's Fresh From the Wrapper Thursday afternoons, 1:00-2:00 P.M. Eastern Time, "sampling works from the newest CDs we've received in the studios." There is "no need to e-mail before sending CDs" to this classical music station. Jazz CDs for the separate HD stream ought to be clearly marked "jazz." Recordings can be sent to Diane Jones / WCNY 415 W. Fayette St. / Syracuse, NY 13204 / USA.

WCRB. In 2009, WCRB was bought by WGBH. WCRB's 99.5 FM is all classical. CDs may be sent to: WGBH / Attention: Alice Abraham / 1 Guest Street / Boston, MA 02135 (U.S.A.). For further info & playlists go to www.wgbh.org.

WDRT. Composer William Neil is the host of WDRT Radio's Symphony Sunday (http://williamneil.net/?page_id=1093), in Viroqua, WI (USA). The program is broadcast at 91.9 FM 9:00-11:00 A.M. Central Time and streams live at wdrt.org. Contact: thecomposerstudio@gmail.com.

WERA 96.7 FM in Clarendon, VA, USA (<http://wera.fm/about/wera-lp-radio-arlington>). Joe Gueron, host of GloBeat, says he would be "happy to discover new talent," and asks that composers, performers, and their agents e-mail him at Globeat.music@gmail.com before mailing CDs to Joseph Gueron/6207 Lakeview Drive/Falls Church, VA 22041/USA.

WETA (<http://www.weta.org/fm>). Classical WETA 90.9 FM accepts all proposals via the U.S. Postal Service. Send CDs you would like considered to WETA-Classical 90.9FM / 2775 South Quincy Street / Arlington, VA 22206 (USA).

On WFCF (Flagler College Radio in St. Augustine, Florida, USA, www.musicofourmothers.com), IAWM member Ellen Grolman hosts Music of Our Mothers: Celebrating Women Composers, Wednesdays, 1:00-3:00 P.M. Eastern Time, iheartradio.com, and WFWM (91.7 FM, in Frostburg, MD, USA, 10:00-noon Eastern Time Fridays). "If you are interested in possibly having some of your music performed on the show," Grolman says, "feel free to send the CD to me. Please send your CD(s) with details regarding duration, movement/movement title, and performers (and program notes if available) to the address below and I will endeavor to air your repertoire. If at all possible, please mark the information directly on the CD itself; separate sheets of paper are easily lost. Please do not send the CDs by registered or certified mail. Both the recording quality and performances must be excellent in order for the CD to be aired." : Ellen Grolman / 192 Anastasia Lakes Drive / St. Augustine, FL 32080. Her e-mail address is EGrolman@frostburg.edu.

WFIU Public Media (wfiu.org) in Bloomington, IN focuses some of its programming (primarily the weekly contemporary music program Wednesdays at 11:00 P.M. Central Time and a subsequent podcast) on emerging composers. "We acknowledge the importance of recognizing the work of living composers and seek to create new avenues especially for young composers to have their music heard. We would also like to feature prominently the work of women composers. We encourage composition students or other emerging composers . . . to submit CD quality recordings of . . . original works for consideration for airplay." Interested parties may contact WFIU's Music Director Joe Goetz at joegoetz@indiana.edu or (812) 855-3451. CDs and accompanying information may be posted to WFIU Music Director Joe Goetz / 1229 E. 7th St. / Bloomington, IN 47405 USA.

WGBH (www.wgbh.org/ classical is now news/jazz (also world & Celtic). In 2009, WGBH bought WCRB. CDs may be sent to: WGBH /Attention: Alice Abraham / 1 Guest Street / Boston, MA 02135 (U.S.A.). For further info & playlists go to www.wgbh.org.

Whisperings (www.SoloPianoRadio.com) plays solo piano music exclusively. Composers and performers are invited to go to the submissions link at the bottom of the home page, to check whether recordings are currently being accepted.

WHRB (<http://www.whrb.org/>). CDs may be sent to: WHRB c/o Classical / 389 Harvard Street / Cambridge, MA 02138 (U.S.A.).

WMBR (<http://www.wmbr.org/>). Ken Field (newedge@wmbr.org) hosts The New Edge (<http://wmbr.org/newedge>), "devoted to creative and innovative instrumental music." More information is available at the Web site. CDs can be sent him at The New Edge / WMBR 88.1FM / 3 Ames Street / Cambridge MA 02142 (U.S.A.).

WMUA 99.1 FM (<http://www.wmua.org/>). E-mail (music@wmua.org) before sending CDs, to avoid duplication. Send CDs to Max Shea or Classical Music Director / WMUA / 105 Campus Center / University of Massachusetts / Amherst, MA 01003 (USA).

WNUR is committed to listen to every recording submitted to it, and plays quite a range of genres. According to the station's Web page, "There's no reason to contact anyone at WNUR before sending your music; however, if you want to ask any questions, you should contact the music director or producer of the show you are sending your music to." Please see WNUR's Web site: http://www.wnur.org/about/wnurfaq.html#Should_I_contact_you_before_sending_my. The address is WNUR 89.3 FM / Attn: [genre of music] / 1877 Campus Drive / Evanston, IL 60201 (USA). To listen online, click on a link at <http://www.wnur.org/>.

WNYC (New York) can be heard over the Internet; go to <http://www.wnyc.org/schedule/>. Contact hosts David Garland and/or John Schaefer at listenerservices@wnyc.org.

On WOMR, IAWM member Canary Burton plays a great deal of music by women and living composers of both sexes. In addition to commercially produced CDs, she broadcasts some concert recordings on The Latest Score which she produces and hosts. To listen to the show, go to <http://www.womr.org>, click on the Listen tab at the top of the page, and follow the prompts. Contact: 1-800-921-WOMR (9667); 1-508-487-2619. <http://www.womr.org>; <http://www.seabirdstudio.com/WOMR.html>. "If you want your music played on a radio station that broadcasts to Cape Cod and the South Shore of Massachusetts and streams to the world," host Canary Burton says, "mail your music to Box 3057, Wellfleet, MA 02667."

WOSU-FM (<http://www.wosu.org/>) at Ohio State University may be heard over the Internet: <http://www.wosu.org/radio/listen-live/>. For composers and performers interested in sending CDs to the station, the address is WOSU-FM / WOSU Public Media / 2400 Olentangy River Road / Columbus OH 43210-1027 (USA). Music Director Beverley Ervine may be reached at beverley.ervine@wosu.org.

WPRB. Classical Discoveries on WPRB, 103.3 FM and online at www.wprb.com in Princeton, NJ (USA), regularly plays women composers' music. Winner of the 2005 ASCAP Deems Taylor Radio Broadcast Award, Classical Discoveries (Wed. 5:30-11:00 A.M. Eastern Time) is devoted to little known repertoire of all musical periods with an emphasis on the old (Baroque and before) and the "New Classical Music." Composers and others interested in sending CDs should first e-mail Marvin Rosen from the Web page, <http://www.classicaldiscoveries.org>, because, he says, "Occasionally I receive a CD from a composer of a genre that is not suitable for my program or a recording I already have."

WQXR (<http://www.wqxr.org/>). To have recordings considered for WQXR, the 24-hour classical station, please send them to the attention of the Music Department. To have them considered on Q2, a 24/7, online music stream that celebrates 500 years of new music, please send them to the attention of Alex Ambrose. The address is Classical WQXR 105.9 / Attn: [appropriate person or department] / 160 Varick Street, Eighth Floor / New York, NY 10013 (U.S.A.). "Please know we receive a tremendous number of CD submissions, and thus call backs will only be made to artists with whom a show is interested in working."

WRR-FM (<http://www.wrr101.com/?id=1>) in Dallas, Texas, streams classical music on the Internet, at <http://www.wrr101.com/stream.shtml>. Contact program director Kurt Rongey at Krongey@wrr101.com or send recordings (CDs only) to Box 159001 / Dallas, Texas 75315-9901 (USA). Telephone: (214) 670-8888.

WXXI-FM 91.5 in Rochester, NY, USA (streamed worldwide on the Web, at <http://interactive.wxxi.org/listen>). Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra Music Director Arild Remmereit is highlighting women composers in his inaugural season, which is broadcast on WXXI-FM 91.5. Contact music director (and midday host) Julia Figueras (jfigueras@wxxi.org), who handles new recordings, schedules interviews with composers and performers, and writes the classical e-newsletter.

--Linda Rimel, Advocacy Committee member

[Broadcast Update is available on the Web page of the International Alliance for Women in Music (<http://iawm.org>), as are the identity and Web address of the current Radio Request composer and a growing list—more than 400 so far—of previous Radio Request composers with links to their Web pages.]